Statutory Requirements for Verification of Age

Section 450.45 Florida Statutes requires the age of a child to be verified through one of the following evidences. "If the first prescribed evidence is not available, the next evidence obtainable in the order set forth below shall be accepted:

The purpose of these certificates is to protect the employer from prosecution for employing an under-aged worker. The possession of an age certificate constitutes a good faith effort to comply with minimum age requirements. The fines for violation of this requirement can result in a monetary penalty for the employer.

1) Any person who hires, employs, or suffers to work any child shall, in addition to the limitations provided in this part, first obtain and keep on record during the entire period of such employment proof of the child's age. This requirement shall be satisfied by:

[Place an "X" in the appropriate box.]

- (a) A photocopy of the child's birth certificate;
- (b) A photocopy of the child's driver's license;
- (c) An age certificate issued by the district school board of the district in which the child is employed, certifying the child's date of birth; or
- (d) A photocopy of a passport or visa which lists the child's date of birth.

(2) Any person who hires, employs, or suffers to work any minor shall post at a conspicuous place on the property or place of employment, where it may be easily read, a poster notifying minors of the Child Labor Law, to be provided by the division upon request.
